The board had discussion on the revised 28E agreement for Southern Hills Regional Mental Health. The board asked for County Attorney Duane Golden to review it and tabled it until next week. Discussion was also held regarding the CPC part time employee Emily Nosekabel. At this time, the board will leave the handbook the same and keep part time positions to a maximum 25 hours per week.

Henry Heaton asked the board to give a letter stating they will consider abating taxes for a property at 12th St. and Adams. No action was taken.

McCarty moved, seconded by Birt, to install a speed limit sign that was requested by Chad Johnston on 240th St coming into Brooks. All supervisors voted aye. Motion carried.

Ouida Wymer gave the Main Street Iowa Annual Review. She discussed what they accomplished in the past year, along with the goals for the upcoming year.

Written committee reports by the supervisors were submitted as follows: England – CPC in Creston at 10:00 am on February 14, Conference Board in Corning at 6:00 pm on February 20; Dixon – ACEDC in Corning at 12:00 pm on February 20, Courthouse Security in Corning at 8:30 am on February 17, Main Street in Corning at 8:00 am on February 19, Conference Board in Corning at 6:00 pm on February 20; Birt – ACCS in Corning at 6:30 pm on February 20, Crossroads in Creston at 6:30 pm on February 24, and Conference Board in Corning at 6:00 pm on February 20; Mullen – 911 in Creston at 7:00 pm on January 29, Main St. Org Comm Annual Review in Corning at 11:00 am on February 18, Main Street Board in Corning at 5:30 pm on February 11, MATURA in Creston at 6:00 pm on February 18; McCarty – Heartland Alliance in Creston at 11:00 am on February 19, Conference Board in Corning at 6:00 pm on February 20.
