

The Adams County Board of Supervisors met at 9:00 am on Tuesday, September 29, 2015, with the following members present: Leland Shipley, Linda England, Merlin Dixon, Doug Birt, and Karl McCarty. The meeting was called to order by the Chair, McCarty. The agenda for the day was read and approved.

Sheriff Alan Johannes discussed with the board three options for trading in a pickup for a new vehicle. The options were a 2016 Ford Explorer for $15,250, a 2016 F-150 for $15,513 and a 2016 Chevy Silverado Crew Cab LT 4x4 for $18,150. Sheriff Johannes preferred the Explorer because that's what the deputy preferred. England moved, seconded by Shipley to approve the 2016 Ford Explorer for $15,250. All supervisors voted aye. Motion carried.

Auditor Bissell updated the board on the HR meetings the Department Heads have been having with Paul Greufe. The Handbook has been the focus and the first rough draft is complete. No action was taken.

At 10:00 am the public auction began to determine the new renters for the county's crop and pasture land. Present for the auction was Merle Jordening, Duane Lauer, Roger Walter, and Dean Schaffer. There were no written bids for either the crop or pasture ground submitted. The crop ground, approximately 103.6 acres, was auctioned for $240/acre with the winning bid being awarded to Dean Schaffer. The pasture ground, approximately 29 acres, was auctioned for $75/acre with the winning bid being awarded to Dean Schaffer.

Oral committee reports by the supervisors were given as follows: McCarty – CHI Hospital in Corning at 11:30 am on Sept 23 and Heartland Alliance in Creston at 1:00 pm on Sept 22; Dixon – E911 in Creston at 7:00 pm on Sept 23; Birt – Crossroads in Creston at 6:00 pm on Sept 28; and England – Southern Hills Regional Mental Health in Creston at 10:00 am on Sep 25 and UTA Case Mgmt in Creston at 11:30 am on Sept 25.
