

The Adams County Board of Supervisors met on Monday, May 20, 2019 at 9:00 am with the following members present: Merlin Dixon, Doug Birt, Leland Shipley, Bobbi Maynes, and Scott Akin. Also in attendance were: Travis Malone, Nancy Barnes, Carl Goodson, Jamie Stargell, Bill Lyddon, Karl McCarty, Joan Gallagher, Carl Goodson, and Alan Johannes. The meeting was called to order by Chairperson Shipley. The Pledge of Allegiance was recited. The agenda for the day was read and approved. Birt moved, seconded by Dixon to approve the minutes from May 13, 2019. All supervisors voted aye. Motion carried.

Emergency Management Director Bill Lyddon gave an update on FEMA. On June 6th at 9:00 am there is a meeting for the procurement process.

Engineer Travis Malone discussed with the board putting the 2001 International Dump Truck out for sealed bid. A new dump truck has already been purchased to replace it. Malone also discussed getting quotes for a front wheel assist tractor, a reclaimer, and a mower for the front of the skid-steer.

County Sanitarian Carl Goodson addressed the board regarding a concern with a septic system inspection. Goodson said the septic system passed inspection but the seller wanted to do more than what is required of a septic inspection and that created some confusion over the regulations. He said he will make sure going forward to have the septic pumped before signing off on the inspection report.

Discussion was held on signage in the courthouse restricting access to certain areas without prior consent. No action was taken.

Mike Galloway with Ahlers and Cooney presented to the board services he can provide with regards to HR consulting.

Committee reports were presented as follows: Birt – DCAT, May 17, Creston; Shipley – Main St., May 14, Corning; Dixon – ATURA, May 14, Corning, Emergency Management, May 15, Corning, and Housing 360, May 15, Corning; Akin – Emergency Management, May 15, Corning, and Maynes – Emergency Management, May 15, Corning and Housing 360, May 15, Corning.
