Department Head Reports – Conservation – All the bathrooms are turned on. Marti and Travis participated in the Middle School career day last week and they will be offering a hunter education course in the middle school again. Michelle Wilson helped with organizing an Earth Day and had quite a few volunteers show up to clean up the parks. The Conservation Department has auctioned off their old snowplow truck. Travis has reserved a spot for Marti to become a certified officer. Spring burning has been completed. Travis is working with Garden & Associates platting more full-service sites at Lake View. Jeff is working on securing plans for two new cottages. Marti and Travis are participating in a program called “School of the Wild” with Lenox Middle School to teach them about wetlands, prairies, and other environments. Treasurer –May notices will be going out to the $178,000 still uncollected. Sheriff – Cadets have graduated from the academy and after two plus years we have a full functioning staff of deputies. The jail lights are on the list to be fully repaired. Starting July 2022, the Deputies will be issued on-duty cell phones. Auditor – Becky Bissell shared the second-grade class will be coming to the courthouse to learn about government and its operations on May 10th.

Committee and Meeting reports were presented as follows: Shipley – Main Street, April 18, Corning, Beacon, April 20, Corning; Birt – DHS DCAT, April 22, Creston; Maynes – Crossroads Finance, April 19, via Zoom, and Beacon, April 20, Corning; Dixon - Beacon, April 20, Corning and Akin – Southern Hills, April 21, Corning.

Maynes moved, seconded by Dixon to adjourn at 11:00 am. All supervisors voted aye. Motion carried.
