

Saundra Leininger called the meeting to order at 10:04am at the Lauvstad Center Conference Room. Present were Saundra Leininger, Jon Brokaw, Joan Haley, Marti Gebbie, Jim Reynolds, and Beth Waddle. Absent were Dick Blazek, Linda Sargent, and Nancy Carmichael.

Waddle moved and Gebbi seconded the approval of the agenda. All Ayes.

Haley moved and Reynolds seconded the approval of the minutes. All Ayes.

The Widener Building update included a comment from Beth that the downstairs windows are in and look great. Also, Marti reminded the commissioners about the video, Chamber Live at 729 Davis Ave "Widener" Building posted on the Main Street Corning Facebook page.

Saundra shared Nancy's request for assistance with the May Preservation Display in the Lauvstad window. Dick Blazek was recommended and will be contacted.

Saundra contacted Dennis Allen about a cemetery workshop to be held in early June and is waiting on his return call. A time of 1pm on June 5th was suggested for the lessons on learning techniques to care for the graves. Saundra said that township trustees, supervisors, city council members, and anyone interested from the public would be invited. Beth mentioned older kids in 4H groups could be included.

Saundra led a discussion about a date and location for the public meeting to present the findings of the reconnaissance survey grant. Possible dates suggested included the end of June or beginning of July. Saundra will visit with Nancy about specifics and check on City Hall availability. Saundra requested commissioners to review Leah's "Summary and Recommendations" of the survey and be prepared to discuss it at the April 13th CLG meeting.

Saundra suggested a follow up to the agricultural history grant with recommendations of places to be added to the National Register of Historic Places. Saundra specifically mentioned the Shepherd farm on Hwy 34.

Saundra asked commissioners to resume attending city council meetings to provide updates on CLG activities. Each commissioner will be assigned a specific city council.

Marti encouraged commissioners to RSVP and attend the Main Street Celebration scheduled for March 23rd.

Meeting adjourned at 10:35am.

Respectfully submitted: Jon Brokaw, Secretary
